

Copyright Policy

We respect the rights of all copyright owners so unless you own the copyright or you have permission to use it, do not submit it. Highedge, Inc. d/b/a Brickfish complies with the notice and takedown processes set forth in the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA). If you are a copyright owner or an agent thereof and believe that your copyright has been infringed you may submit a DMCA notification by filing a notice with our Designated Agent.

To file a copyright infringement notification with us, please send a written communication that includes substantially the following:

- Identification of the copyrighted work that you believe has been infringed
- Identification of the material that you claim is infringing or which you claim is the subject of infringing activity.
- Sufficient information to permit Brickfish to locate the material. Please provide the URL. That will help us locate the material quickly.
- Information reasonably sufficient to permit Brickfish to contact you, such as an address, telephone number and email address.
- The following statement: "I have a good faith belief that use of the copyrighted materials in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law."
- The following statement: "I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the information in the notification is accurate and that I am the copyright owner or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed."
- Your physical or electronic signature.

Such written notice should be sent to us as follows:

By Email: designatedagent@brickfish.com

Please send the notification information in the body of the email, not as an attachment.

By Mail:

DMCA Designated Agent
Highedge, Inc.
5930 Cornerstone Court West
Suite 190
San Diego, CA 92121

By Fax: 858-200-2168

Or

By Telephone: 858-587-2530

In the event that your notification does not comply with the requirements set forth above and does not substantially comply with the requirements of 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(3), Highedge, Inc. may not be obliged to remove the material.

Counter Notification

If Brickfish removes material pursuant to a DMCA notification, Brickfish will make a good-faith attempt to contact the user who posted it so they may make a counter notification pursuant to sections 512(g) (3) of the DMCA.

To ensure Brickfish is able to respond efficiently to your counter notification, please contact us in writing, either by regular mail or email to the Designated Agent at the address set forth above, and include the following:

- Identification of the material that has been removed and the specific URL at which the material appeared before it was removed.
- Your contact information, including address, telephone number, and email address and your statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of Federal District Court for the judicial district in which your address is located, or for San Diego, County, if your address is outside of the United States, and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided notification under section 512(c)(1)(C) or an agent of such person.
- The following statement: "I swear, under penalty of perjury, that all information contained in my counter notification is accurate and I have a good faith belief that the material identified was removed as a result of mistake and/or misidentification."
- Your physical or electronic signature.

Please note that you may risk liability for damages if you materially misrepresent that material or was removed or disabled by mistake or misidentification. Any and all counter notifications submitted to Brickfish that substantially comply with the above will be furnished to the complaining party.

Brickfish will terminate the accounts of and/or block access to users who are repeat infringers.
